Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

March 31, 2024

On this day of days we offer a joyful sacrifice of praise to the Father who raised His Son from the dead. Let us be intent upon the life Christ offers us, Christ our Passover who has been sacrificed.

Pastor's Corner

Indeed Christ Has Risen

Alleluia, Alleluia! Our Lord has indeed risen from dead. Death could not hold Him bound as the stone was rolled away for us to see the empty tomb. Christ's victory over death is our sure hope of our own victory over death. Christ's triumph over death is a confirmation of His power over any negative forces. He has destroyed the forces of evil, sin, and falsehood. In the same way shall all who believe in his power triumph over any forces of evil and death.

Easter is the feast of faith, hope and love. Faith in the resurrection of Christ from the dead, of hope that when we have followed Christ in this life, we will arise with Him to eternal life and of love for Him who died that we might live. Easter is a celebration of light over darkness and truth over falsehood.

Christ's resurrection is not only historical but equally a credible story and not an idle tale as some skeptics would say. Even the apostles were the first to doubt the resurrection of Christ until something extraordinary happened that convinced them that indeed truly the Lord has risen, and He is alive. According to Archbishop Fulton Sheen "Modern incredulity in the face of extraordinary is nothing compared to the skepticism which immediately greeted the first news of the Resurrection. What modern skeptics say about the Resurrection story, the disciples themselves were the first to say, namely it was an idle tale." As a credible story, Christ rising from the dead changes everything and our faith as Christians is rooted in this single fact of victory over death. Our faith is not in vain, and our hope is meaningful because Christ is alive. He has risen; He dies no more.

Beloved parishioners, my prayer is that this power of the risen Lord comes alive in your lives and your individual families. I pray the risen Lord restores your families to peace, rebuilds your broken relationships to joyful union, and renews your hope and takes away the clouds of doubt that cloud your mind. I pray that Christ's victory over death becomes a moment of decisiveness for you to draw closer to Him.

May Christ's victory over death revive any part of you that feels dead, bring healing to any illness that drags you down and causes you pain. May the light of Christ's Resurrection brighten your steps and lead you securely. Be confident that the risen Jesus will bring healing to you and His power will transform you and His mercy gives you comfort. May the Easter of this year 2024 end any despair or ugly situation that threatens your peace.

Happy Easter. Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: The Lord has Truly Risen

Easter Sunday Year B, March 31, 2024

First Reading Acts 10:34, 37-43, Second Reading 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8, Gospel John 20:1-9

Today we celebrate the greatest solemnity of our Faith; the foundation on which our hope and faith as Christian stands. We celebrate and rejoice that Our Lord Jesus Christ has risen from the dead. By rising from the dead, He has defeated the power of death, Satan, evil forces, falsehood, and injustice and took the Glory. God made Him to rise from the dead to prove that He has power over life and death. As Paul would say, “if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and our faith is in vain.” 1 Cor 15:14-15. But because Christ has been raised, we have hope, and our faith is credible and that is what we celebrate. That is the reason we shout Alleluia! Alleluia! Indeed, the Lord has truly risen.

The liturgies we have been celebrating in the past three days are not what happened to Jesus but what is happening now among us as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the spirit of holiness. We celebrate God’s taking possession of our heart at its deepest core, recreating us as a new human community rich in compassion, steadfast in hope that Jesus is alive and present among us. We are celebrating the fact that Jesus is alive and present among us.

Today’s Gospel story from John tells us that “on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning while it was still dark.” She came to the tomb to anoint the dead body of Jesus as was the tradition. By coming to the tomb, it shows that she never believed that Jesus would rise from the dead on the third day as He has said. The apostles themselves never believed in what Jesus had said, and that is why when they were told by Mary Magdala, they had taken the body of Jesus away they came to verify the truth of the story not to come and witness the resurrection. Archbishop Fulton Sheen reflecting on this made a very inspiring statement, “The Most astounding fact about this spectacle of vigilance over the dead was that the enemies of Christ expected the Resurrection, but His friends did not. It was the believers who were the skeptics; it was the unbelievers who were credulous. His followers needed and demanded proof before they would be convinced. In the three great scenes of the Resurrection drama, there was a note of sadness and unbelief. The first scene was that of weeping Magdalen who came to the grave early in the morning with spices not to greet the Risen savior, but to anoint His dead Body.” That is to say that resurrection was not in their thoughts. Therefore, if we truly believe that Christ has truly Risen, how can we make the Resurrection of Christ present in our lives every day and especially when we gather for our Sunday celebration.

There are THREE ways through which we can make present the resurrection of Christ in our lives. Through the life of Witness. We need to live the life of witness by giving testimonies of our faith and to show that Jesus has truly risen, and He is alive. A life of witness is the greatest testimony of faith in the resurrection of Christ. Hope. Our hope assures us that God is on our side, and we look to the future with hope. If Christ did not rise from the dead our faith would mean nothing and our proclamation empty. The life of hope means that we should never give in to despair because Christ is alive and in our midst. No matter how ugly a situation may seem before us let us never give up our hope in God or in ourselves. Submission. To Submit is to realize that Jesus is alive and present among us. Thus, we submit all our problems, our difficulties, and our worries unto Him because we believe He is alive and with us.

I wish you all a blessed Easter.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Easter Blessings,

I could only imagine what it was like that first Easter when Mary Magdalen was the first to witness that Jesus had risen, and she went to tell the apostles— oh the excitement that they realized that Jesus actually did what He had set out to do— Jesus was always a man of His word. Alleluia! He is Risen, He is Risen indeed! My time at Our Lady of the Lake has been a blessing, and Easter is yet another opportunity to realize one's blessings, especially in knowing that Jesus conquered sin and death, and gives us great hope in a time when the world is filled with uncertainties. Let us hold onto the promise of resurrection, and as our Lord burst through the darkness of the tomb into the Father's wonderful light, may we realize His promise of eternal life and be consoled in the expectation of His coming in glory! Alleluia He is risen, He is truly risen— Pax et Bono!

April-June 2024

Third Saturday of the month
4:30-6:30 pm

(Once placed in a small group, the day may change if necessary to accommodate the personal group's schedules)

"The small group setting allows for people to share their life stories... stories which we would never hear just meeting them at the Church or at a meeting. We heard an incredible story. We now feel a connection with that fellow parishioner, a bond that wasn't there before. Our relationship is forever changed."

- Sherry Ketner

"I love going to the homes, getting to know people better, and hearing their stories. This is great! I love it." - Fr. Tony Okolo
"I got to meet some friends, and even got to know some people I have seen many times at Church but never spend time with.

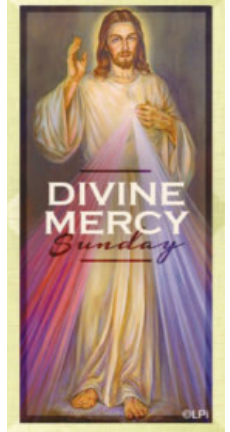

Good company, good food, good stories-and best of all was sharing stories of faith. We build each other up."

- Melanie Sarino

Registration forms are in the Narthex. Fill out and leave in the gift Shop, offertory, or Parish Office.

Parish Council Communication Corner

To keep our parishioners better informed, the Parish Council has established this Communication Corner. Each week we will provide an update concerning a specific committee or answers to comments from the suggestion box. We hope you find this channel of communication helpful and informative.

Q: Why is the new Sunday Mass time so late? Couldn't it be at 4:00 pm to allow young adults to go to Mass, then go to dinner after?

A: Much consideration was given to the time of the Sunday afternoon/evening Mass. The consensus of 5:00 pm was agreed upon. It appears to be working well for many parishioners and still allows time for dinner. In addition, the time works well with the priests' schedules.

Q: We need more information in the bulletin and announcements in Spanish and it's worrying that we always have to cancel the Spanish Mass on Sundays.

A: The need for additional information and translations in Spanish are well-known, we are working to make this more adequate. The cancellation of the Sunday Spanish Masses is concerning as well. The Parish will be more cognizant of the cancellations and refrain from cancelling the Spanish Mass unless absolutely needed.

Q: Information Booth needs to be labeled.

A: We agree. We will be looking into signage for the Information Booth over the next month or two.

Virtue of the Month

Since 2017, Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School has been teaching the Virtues Program developed by the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist in Ann Arbor. Our goal is to unite all aspects of our Parish by continuing to incorporate this program. Each month we will share in learning about a Virtue, applying it to our lives, and finding inspiration from the Saints and Scripture supporting the Virtue. The Virtue for April is sincerity.

ENTRANCE SONG

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Christopher Wordsworth

Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to heav'n and voices raise; sing to God a hymn of gladness, sing to God a hymn of praise. He who on the cross as Savior for the world's salvation bled; Jesus Christ, the King of glory, now is risen from the dead.

Now the iron bars are broken, Christ from death to life is born, glorious life, and life immortal, on this resurrection morn; Christ has triumphed, and we conquer by his mighty enterprise, we with him to life eternal by his resurrection rise.

EASTER SEQUENCE

Christ is Arisen

Richard Prouix

To the Paschal Victim give thankful praise! Christ ever sinless, his sheep now he saves. Death and life contended in dreadful strife; death did not hold him, immortal his life.

Refrain: Alleluia, his triumph we sing! Christ is arisen, the Victor, the King.

Mary, speak, confessing what you have seen! "Christ's tomb lies empty where once he had been; Angels bright confirming; shroud laid aside; He goes to Galilee, he lives though he died."

Christians, sing his glory with every breath; sing of his kingdom, victorious o'er death! Jesus grant us mercy: new life from heav'n! Christ ever reigns! Alleluia! Amen!

Psalm 118

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.

OFFERTORY SONG

God is Alive

David Haas

Sing your joy, proclaim God's glory! Rise and sing, the morning has come! Bless our God and praise all creation; Song of the earth and light from heaven; God is alive! Alleluia!

All the earth is filled with rejoicing, Light and life the wonder of God! Christ has triumphed! Risen for ever! Joy of our hearts and hope of our dreaming; God is alive! Alleluia!

May we learn to become your Kingdom, may we be your kindness and truth! Love is our calling, gift of your presence; children of God, and spirit of Jesus: God is alive! Alleluia!

Light our way, O God of the living, May we learn to see with new eyes! Jesus the Lord, our power and promise; Light for the blind, and food for the hungry; God is alive! Alleluia!

COMMUNION SONGS

I Am the Bread of Life

Suzanne Toolan

I am the bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

Refrain: And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live forever, you shall live forever.

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

I am the resurrection, I am the life. If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live forever.

Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

I Know That My Redeemer Lives

Scott Soper

Refrain: I know that my Redeemer lives, that I shall rise again. I know that my Redeemer lives, that I shall rise again.

En torno al altar somos sus invitados, en torno al altar El esperando está como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la eternidad, como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de fraternidad.

Tristeza y dolor corren por nuestros labios, pureza y amor trae nuestro Señor; viene mi amor y El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la comunión. Viene mi amor y El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la comunión.

La cena Pascual hoy hemos celebrado, la cena Pascual, signo de hermandad; gracias, Señor, gracias por tu presencia y gracias por tu amistad. Gracias, Señor, gracias por tu presencia y gracias por tu amistad.

CANTO DE SALIDA

Alégrate María

Tradicional – P. Osvaldo Catena

Alégrate, María, Aleluya, la pascua está cumplida, Aleluya.

Oye Madre nuestra voz, por nosotros ruega a Dios. Salve, Salve, Salve María.

Resucito tu hijo, Aleluya, según El lo predijo, Aleluya.

Sufriste con tu Hijo, Aleluya, hoy gozas de su triunfo, Aleluya.

Hazme oír el gozo y la alegría, que se alegren los huesos quebrantados.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio. Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.
