Pentecost Sunday

May 19, 2024

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit; let us live, then, by the Spirit! That same Spirit, the Advocate, who “renews the face of the earth”, was given as gift to the disciples to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, and to obtain forgiveness of sins.

Pastor's Corner

Mary and the Pentecost

Beloved Parishioners,

As I stated in my last Pastor's Corner I would be sharing reflections on some Church's feasts and events during this, my vacation, thus this week I wish to share a reflection on Mary's role on Pentecost today. The Pentecost which we celebrate 50 days after Easter Sunday, taken away from its Jewish origin and significance, is regarded as the birthday of the Church remarkably because of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Church which took place on that day. Luke's description of the first Christian community of Jerusalem includes the presence of Mary (Acts 1:12-14). She is among the central characters that form the bridge between the story of Jesus and the path of the nascent Church. This explains why in 2018, Pope Francis instituted the feast of 'Mary, Mother of the Church' to be celebrated on the Monday following the solemnity of Pentecost. In this way he stresses Mary's maternal role in the newborn Church. The Lukan account from Acts 1:14 includes one of the Church's first affirmations regarding Mary. She is presented as “the Mother of Jesus.” Hence, we see that although Peter is the head of the Church (Matt 16:18), Mary represents the heart of the group, the unifying core of all who have come together to pray and prepare for the coming of the Paraclete. Here we affirm the teaching of John Paul II that “the Marian dimension of the Church precedes the Petrine dimension, although both are complementary” (Address, 12/22/87).

Mary was the trust insurance of the petrified Christian community and a sign of hope to them because she had already experienced the working of the Holy Spirit and she is very familiar with Him. It was due to His creative power that she could become a virginal mother. In Lk 1:38 the angel described to Mary: “The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So, the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God.” In Luke 1:41 “When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.” Here we see her guiding the frightened apostolic cenobite who have learned recently to trust no one among themselves after having experienced the harrowing betrayal of Judas Iscariot (Mt 26:14-16), the faltering and floundering of Peter the head (Lk 22:54-62), and the obstinate doubt of Thomas manifested after the resurrection (John 20:24-29). But with them was Mary, the plenitude of grace and trust who followed Jesus faithfully from Nazareth to Golgotha and thus merited the Apostle's confidence. They had seen her prod her Son to an early miracle in Cana after admonishing them “Do whatever he tells you” (John

2:5). Little wonder Pope Benedict XVI exhorts that, “there is no Church without Pentecost and no Pentecost without the Virgin Mary” (Regina Coeli, 5/23/2010).

The Holy Spirit invites us to gaze upon Mary, to know her and to love her. As Pope John Paul II said, “As the bond with Mary grows deeper, so the action of the Spirit in the life of the Church becomes more fruitful.” (Dec. 9, 1998). Mary shows us how to cooperate with the Holy Spirit's gifts. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit respond to seven essential needs that a human person has in life in general and in the spiritual life in particular. Mary is the one who shows us best how to cooperate with these gifts. The gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. Mary, again, is our exemplar in living them out. Mary not only leads us to a Christian way of life that bears fruit, but she also models for us a continual reliance on the Holy Spirit for the carrying out of our personal mission.

Christ, following His ascension, directed his apostles to the Upper Room where He had instituted two key sacraments for the birth of the Church: the Eucharist, and the sacrament of Holy Orders—the priesthood. Christ sent them to the Upper Room to be near Mother Mary who would prepare them to receive and respond to the Holy Spirit in an altogether new way of holy conviction. Since Mary was present to assist the Apostles in their sacramental endeavors, we must continue to invoke the motherly intercessions of Mary to enable us to remain faithful to our own sacramental life. Our novena to the Holy Spirit during which we reenact the Apostle's prayer in the Upper Room usually falls into the context of the May devotion to our Blessed Mother and this points our mind to the need to join our prayers with that of Mary, the mother of Christ and emulate her devotion to the Holy Spirit for our own spiritual growth and flourishing. Mary welcomed God, physically and spiritually. It is thus a task for we Christians to always give God welcome. We give God welcome by reading His word, receiving His sacraments, and by living a life of charity as a gift of self for others. We welcome God in our neighbor through works of mercy.

Finally, we pray for our Mother Mary to help us by turning our hearts to her Son in the Holy Eucharist. Pope Benedict XVI teaches that “The Eucharist is a ‘perpetual Pentecost’ since every time we celebrate Mass we receive the Holy Spirit who unites us more deeply with Christ and transforms us into Him.” Hence, through Mary, we shall achieve that spiritual support only her motherly intercession can afford.

Theme: The Holy Spirit is the Wonder Worker

Pentecost Sunday Year B, May 19, 2024

First Reading Acts 2:1-11, Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13, Gospel John 20:19-23

Today, 50 days after Easter Sunday, the Church celebrates the great feast of Pentecost the day the apostles received power from above and were filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit. It is on this day that the church came into existence. Before the coming of the Holy Spirit on the apostles they were all in one room for fear of the Jews not knowing what will befall them and thus they could not go out. However, with the coming of the Holy Spirit upon them they were empowered, and they went out with courage and started proclaiming the great news of salvation. That is why my dear friends, the Holy Spirit is the wonder worker. When we become aware of his power in us, we are empowered to work wonders.

With the coming of the Holy Spirit, there was a great wonder: every apostle's mind was clarified. They understood the mission of Jesus clearly. They were filled with the desire for evangelization. The mutilating fear gave way to fearless proclamation. The cloud of confusion was melted, and the truth of Christ's mission illumined in their hearts. They were not afraid of martyrdom. Fired by the Holy Spirit, the unlettered- fishermen of Galilee would challenge the mighty Roman Empire, travel to various nations to proclaim. When the Spirit took over, they went out, turned the world upside down, and established a church that has survived two millennium years, inspiring billions of people to follow the way of Christ. This did not come through money or massive building but by the sheer power of the Spirit that worked in those simple men and women. They fulfilled Jesus' prophesy in Acts 1:8 "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

There are a few lessons we can learn from the events of today and the readings of the Mass on this great feast day of the church. In the first reading they were all in one place and each person is locked up in himself or herself. Thus, they could not understand the other person. When we are closed within ourselves, we cannot understand the other person. In the Gospel we were told that the door was locked for fear of the Jews. So being locked into oneself is like being locked out from God's Holy Spirit. When we open up ourselves, we see the beauty in the other and relate with one another peacefully. When we open ourselves, God's Holy Spirit comes into our lives to take control and possession.

Jesus opens the door and enters and then gave the Apostles the Holy Spirit which now strengthened them and gave them power to preach the Gospel message and fulfill the mission that Christ had given them. For us to receive the Holy Spirit we need to open the doors of our heart and allow God to take control. We need to remove fear which is a great obstacle to realizing God's potential in our lives. We need to speak the language of love which is understood by everyone.

The feast of Pentecost today reminds us of the consolation and comforting power of the Spirit whom Jesus called the "Comforter". As a mother holds a wounded and frightened child, and with her breath inspires trust, rekindles confidence, and gives life back again, so the Holy Spirit is with us in times when we are blown down, too weak to pray and troubled to rise from our place. He will hold us and breathe us back into life again. Should we wither and fade, he will gather us up in his arms. Happy Feast Day.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Dear Parish Family,

Father Michael would like to share with you the news of his departure from Our Lady of the Lake Roman Catholic Parish. He has recently been named Parochial Administrator of St. Catherine Laboure' in Chino Valley, Arizona, effective July 1, 2024. This will assist Fr. Michael in being located closer to family as he continues to care for his mom. Fr. Michael has enjoyed tremendously his time of 4.5 years serving the Catholic community of Lake Havasu. Fr. Michael will continue the ministry of Good to be Catholic, returning for the first Monday of the month.

Job Opportunities

The following job opportunities are available in the Parish:

Office Coordinator-Fulltime Position 40 hours/week with benefits

The Office Coordinator is directly responsible for all aspects of the Parish front desk operations and assures the effectiveness of day-to-day office operations. The successful candidate will demonstrate excellent oral/written communication and interpersonal skills. Must be able to work independently, with minimal supervision and frequent interruptions. Requires excellent organizational skills, the ability to multi-task and the ability to work well with staff and volunteers in a team environment. Must be skilled in Microsoft Office computer applications (Word, Excel, Publisher, PowerPoint) and Google apps (Gmail, calendar docs).

Communications/IT Coordinator-Part time Position under 30 hours/week; no benefits

This position provides communication and technology support for the Parish operations, utilizing established print and digital media including social media, video and streaming technologies. Will be required to troubleshoot hardware errors and manage network equipment. Responsible for making the announcements both for the live streams and those projected at mass, monitoring and updating Our Lady's Facebook and YouTube pages. Coordinate the live streaming of the 10:30 am mass on Sundays and any other events that require live streaming. This may require evening and weekend work. Act as web administrator to manage the Parish's website to optimize its performance and increase its online visibility. The successful candidate will demonstrate excellent oral/written communication and interpersonal skills. Will be tasked with multiple duties or projects at once, making organization a critical skill for success. Must be able to work independently, with minimal supervision, and be able to meet deadlines and schedules. The ability to collaborate with staff is needed. Essential that applicant be proficient with all social media platforms. Must be skilled in Microsoft Office computer applications (Word, Excel, Publisher, PowerPoint), Adobe Photoshop, and Google apps (Gmail, calendar docs).

Maintenance Worker-Part time Position 20-25 hour/week; no benefits

The position will consist of a variety of maintenance tasks to ensure the buildings, grounds, and equipment are safe, operational, and secure. Expected hours are 4:00 pm to 8:00/9:00 pm Monday through Friday and Saturday as needed. Duties will include keeping the church, classrooms, and halls clean and ready to use. The successful candidate will be able to work independently, checking everything off their to-do list, meeting deadlines and schedules. Attention to detail and the ability to look for a solution when a problem is presented is required. A working knowledge of Microsoft Word and Excel is necessary. A plus would be if the individual selected is able to make minor electrical, plumbing, and other physical repairs, e.g. painting.

All applicants must be a practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church. For additional information or questions, please call Patti at 928-855-2685. Applications for all positions must be submitted no later than June 17, 2024.

Virtue of the Month

The Virtue for May is Trustworthiness.
A Saint who showed trustworthiness:

St. Agnes of Montepulciano: When she was only 9 years old, Agnes asked her parents to let her enter the convent at Montepulciano. They hesitated, but knew she was a mature and devout child so they agreed.

When she was 14 the sisters put her in charge of procuring all the food, clothing, and needs of the community. The next year the Pope himself asked her to become superior of a new community and teach its sisters.

Havasu Columbian Bingo

Wed. - Doors open 11 am, Games start 1 pm

Volunteers are needed! If you have questions or wish to volunteer, please call Denise at 619-805-5145

Please note we will NOT be having Bingo sessions on Monday, May 20 or Monday, May 27.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 19, 2024 - Pentecost Sunday

When I was twenty-two years of age in August of 2000, I experienced World Youth Day in Rome. As for many of my generation, the event was life-changing for me. Surrounded by joyful, hope-filled young people from seemingly every nation and tongue, we were gathered around the Pope, sharing a common Faith and love. The Pope spoke to us of our shared family bond in the Church and invited us to give our lives in service to others. Now twenty-four years later, my life as a priest, like that of so many others from those special days, continues on that same path of love and unity — despite my many weaknesses. What makes that continuation possible?

This week's feast gives the answer: the Holy Spirit. The gift of God — His very life — the third person of the Trinity, is the Spirit who animates the entire Church and each member of it. He makes us one-in-love in a way that utterly exceeds human capacity. For example, he makes the apostles speak with tongues of fire, and everyone hears them in his own native tongue. The Holy Spirit is the means by which Jesus establishes a new family, one that crosses all possible boundaries of time, space, and culture. The Holy Spirit never tires in enthusing us for mission.

Aren't we longing to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh way? Today we celebrate this untiring flame, once ignited on earth and burning still. So, we humbly cry out: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love!

Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

19 de mayo de 2024 - Domingo de Pentecostés

Con la Solemnidad del Espíritu Santo se termina el Tiempo Pascual. Durante cincuenta días hemos estado celebrando a Jesús vivo, quien venció la muerte y a los poderes del mal. La promesa del Espíritu Santo se hizo realidad para los discípulos. Se venció el miedo y la incertidumbre de ¿qué hacer, hacia dónde dirigirse? También, María Madre de Dios estuvo presente en este gran día, dando apoyo a la Iglesia naciente. La oración colecta de este día ayuda grandemente a celebrar con alegría la presencia del Espíritu Santo entre nosotros: “Dios nuestro, que por el misterio de la festividad que hoy celebramos santificas a tu Iglesia, extendida por todas las naciones, concede al mundo entero los dones del Espíritu Santo y continúa obrando en el corazón de los fieles las maravillas que te dignaste realizar en los comienzos de la predicación evangélica...”

Sí, pidamos los dones del Espíritu Santo para todos los fieles cristianos y para el mundo entero que tanto los necesita. Ven Espíritu Santo y danos la fuerza que viene de lo alto para continuar con la esperanza de la paz. Anima los esfuerzos de hombres y mujeres que luchan constantemente para lograr una vida que recree el modo de las primeras comunidades, donde se preocupaban el uno por el otro. “Él Espíritu no es, como podría parecer, algo abstracto; es la persona más concreta, más cercana, que nos cambia la vida” (Papa Francisco) 6-9-2019.

ENTRANCE SONG

Come Holy Ghost

Rabanus Maurus

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest, and in our hearts take up thy rest; come with thy grace and heav'nly aid to fill the hearts which thou hast made, to fill the hearts which thou hast made.

O Comforter, to thee we cry, thou heav'nly gift of God most high; thou fount of life, and fire of love, and sweet anointing from above, and sweet anointing from above.

Come, O Holy Spirit

Owen Alstott/Ludwig van Beethoven

Come, O Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home shed a ray of light divine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come! Come, O Father of the poor! Come, O source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

O most blessed light divine, may that light within us shine, and our inmost being fill! Come, O Holy Spirit come! In your absence, we have naught, nothing good in deed or thought, nothing free from taint of ill. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

On the faithful who adore, and confess you ever more, in your sev'nfold gift descend; come, O Holy Spirit, come! Give them virtue's sure reward; give them your salvation, Lord; give them joys that never end. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

Psalm 104

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Glory to God

Tony Alonso

Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our Prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

OFFERTORY SONG

We Are Many Parts

Marty Haugen

Refrain: We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share. May the Spirit of love make us one in deed; one, the love that we share; one, our hope in despair; one, the cross that we bear.

God of all, we look to you; we would be your servants true; let us be your love to all the world.

So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too; all is brought together in the Lord.

All you seekers, great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord.

COMMUNION SONG

The Supper of the Lord

Laurence Rosania

Refrain: Precious body, precious blood, here in bread and wine; here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured; come, share the supper of the Lord.

This is the bread of God coming down from heav'n, giving life to us, to all the world.

"I am the living spring of eternal life; you that drink from me shall not thirst again."

"I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you; you that eat this bread shall never die."

"All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God."

CLOSING SONG

Go Make a Difference

Steve Angrisano/ Tom Tomaszek

Refrain: Go make a difference. We can make a difference. Go make a difference in the world. Go make a difference. We can make a difference. Go make a difference in the world.

We are the salt of the earth, called to let the people see the love of God in you and me. We are the light of the world, not to be hidden but be seen. Go make a difference in the world.

We are the hands of Christ reaching out to those in need, the face of God for all to see. We are the spirit of hope; we are the voice of peace. Go make a difference in the world.
