KNIGHTS IN REGALIA

A Word from Father Chauncey!

Brother Knights,

Happy Easter! Having been given this opportunity to share with you in the April issue of the Knightly Cricket, my mind and heart are filled with all of the work the Lord Jesus has been doing these past few weeks.

During the season of Lent, we priests heard countless confessions for many, many hours. So many people were well prepared and open to God's mercy for life changing conversions this year. All of us have taken note of how much work the Holy Spirit of God is doing in the lives of so many people. Wow!

Holy Week was also particularly powerful. A much greater number of people told me this year how much they were impacted by liturgies on Wednesday night, Thursday night, Friday afternoon, Saturday night and Easter Sunday morning. Many people seem to be returning to their Catholic faith with newfound devotion.

I am so grateful for you brother knights and so many other parishioners who step-up and involve yourselves in the mission of the Church. Many visit the sick and homebound, support the youth and young families of the parish, You take pride and responsibility for helping the community of the parish. Knights showing up all together and in blue for Blue shirt Sunday mass and communion so that parishioners may be inspired by seeing so many men. Men who are proud of their Catholic faith and identity. I thank you for your service and dedication.

Please pray that each and every one of us may remain open to be a part of the great work that God is doing now among us in this parish. I thank you also for your prayers and support of me, your pastor. May I ask you for both your prayers and your words of wisdom as we proclaim our Catholic faith together.

My Brother Knights,

God’s blessings on you during this time of Lent. As always, my mind wonders to these days of fasting, of sacrifices that we give to strengthen our love towards our Lord. I search my soul, my mind, my heart to find my purpose as a servant of God. I read, I pray, I listen, I see the goodness of His creation and His love for us.

Quotes from “America Needs Fatima”, “I am concealing myself from you so that you can discover by yourself what you are without me, - God to St. Margret of Cortona”. Have you, my brother Knight, as I have, experienced weeks, months perhaps years of feeling a separation from your heavenly Father.

The loneliness that engulfs us, the false pretense that all is OK, yet hungering for truth within our souls. This is the time to reconcile, to amend our faults that led us astray. This the time to reflect on all the love, the goodness of a Father, we have in Jesus Christ. This is the time to cleanse our souls and bring back within our being the true love of Christ.

As we meditate on His compassion, His love, His death and especially on His giving us salvation. We must atone to all our faults, purify yourself to be as He commanded us to be. We must learn to carry our cross as He did. To reflect on all He has given us as His children.

Through His death, He gave us salvation that was brought about through His love for us. We say, “Father assist me in doing Your will”. I will do my best to be as You. I will fail, fall, but I will get up carry my cross and with your forgiveness, love, I will continue my journey with You. All pains will ease and joys and triumph will prevail in Your name. His presence is waiting for you in the Eucharist.

God’s blessings & a late Happy Easter “He is Risen”,

Sisto Sandoval

A Letter From Your Grand Knight

The season of our risen Lord. We have been blessed. The work we do is not only a blessing to us but to the people in need of God's grace. Charity is one of the most important requirements of God. So, remember as you look upon those in need with a smile, Jesus and Our Father look upon you with the love smile too! Needed
