Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And He sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

March 24, 2024

Jesus, humbling Himself out of love for us, did not shield His face from buffets and spitting, but offered His life on the cross. He relied on His Father's love.

Pastor's Corner

The Transformative Value of Confession

Beloved Parishioners,

As we draw close to celebrating the great mystery of the history of our salvation, I share with you the amazing value of confession which helps us to experience the joy of the love of Jesus.

"I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit..." These transformative words from the mouth of a priest after a penitent goes for confession are not only salvific but also therapeutic. St. Thomas Aquinas captured this idea well in the following words: "In the life of the body, a man is sometimes sick, and unless he takes medicine, he will die. Even so, in the spiritual life, a man is sick on account of sin. For that reason, he needs medicine so that he may be restored to health; this grace is bestowed in the sacrament of penance." It is therefore not surprising that those who visit the confessional, experience a sense of relief, of healing, of empowerment that an obstacle has been overcome, and a commitment to stay away from the sin that was confessed. This psycho-spiritual benefit is something every member of our Christian community needs, and its roots are enshrined in the Bible.

The biblical foundation of confession in the Old and New Testaments draws out the values of that sacrament for every one of us. The book of Proverbs 28:13 states, "No one who conceals transgressions will prosper, but one who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy." The Lord speaking to Moses in Numbers 5:5-7 also says, "When a man or a woman wrongs another, breaking faith with that person incurs guilt and shall confess the sin that has been committed." Other texts, like Daniel 9:4-19 and Hosea 6 and 14 describe exhortations for the acknowledgement of sins and reconciliation with God through collective confession. In the New Testament, the first letter of St. John asserts, "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." (I John 1:8-10). All of these were capped up in the authority given by Christ to His apostles, and, by extension, the Church regarding the power to forgive sins. In the gospel of Matthew, Peter is given authority by Christ, who says: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." (Matthew 16:19). This mandate is reiterated in Mt 18:18 and Jn 20:23.

Penance is, thus, a sacrament of reunion and reconciliation with God. It is a "meeting point between the prodigal son, seeking forgiveness, and the love of the Father who is calling him." St. Paul had appealed to us, saying, "We beseech you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God" (2 Cor 5:20). If a Christian's conscience is burdened by serious sin, then the path of penance through the sacrament of reconciliation becomes necessary for reconciliation (Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 37). This reunion keeps us in a state of grace to participate in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Paul had warned us in I Cor 11:28-29 that, "each one must examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. Anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body eats and drinks judgment on himself." Therefore, we all must ensure to be in a state of grace as communicants by visiting the confessional.

Not only does confession rebuild our broken relationship with God, but it also fosters reconciliation and healing in our relationships with others. Through this sacrament, we are encouraged to seek forgiveness from those we have wronged and to extend forgiveness to those who have hurt us, thereby promoting peace, reconciliation, and unity within the community. Some people still find it difficult to forgive hurts, past relationships, and bad words others say about them because we have not embraced confession. This Lenten season is a perfect time to allow Jesus to fix us. Allow Him to take away the baggage that weighs us down.

Furthermore, when we become acquainted with the sacrament of reconciliation, we become spiritually renewed and revitalized. This enables us, as Catholics, to experience a profound sense of liberation and freedom from the burdens of guilt and shame. By confessing our sins and receiving absolution, we are empowered to embark on a journey of inner transformation, embracing God's love and mercy, and striving for holiness in our lives.

Finally, we must remember that there is no sin too heavy for God to forgive. The sacrament of reconciliation, when approached with sincerity and humility, brings to us a soothing experience of the joy of God's forgiveness. When did you last have that experience? The Lord is inviting you to the confessional today.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Jesus Humbles Himself Out of Love He Has for Us

Palm Sunday Year B, March 24, 2024

1st Reading Isaiah 50:4-7, 2nd Reading Philippians 2:6-11, Gospel Mark 12:12-16

The passion narrative gives us an insight of what Jesus suffered for us, especially the love He has for us that made Him endure all the insults and humiliation for our sake. Today's liturgy does not require a long homily but to allow the events of the passion story to speak directly to us in the silence of our heart. Our meditation is on Jesus' suffering and death for our sake. He came and gave Himself completely to us by His preaching, miracles and healing and finally of giving Himself in humility on the cross.

Today, we recall how Jesus entered Jerusalem in humility to complete the work of our salvation to undergo suffering, denial and finally death for our sake and to rise after three days. Today begins the most sacred week called Holy Week in our Christian liturgy. One of the ways we can participate actively in this week's events and enjoy the beauty of the celebration is to maintain some level of interior silence and quietness. The Church invites us to open ourselves since we have all gathered with faith to commemorate that triumphal entry into Jerusalem. If we participate in this journey with our Lord, we are sure to rise with Him on Easter Sunday. Jesus entered into Jerusalem riding on an ass because to ride on a horse for the Jews would indicate a war king or war Lord but on ass signifies that the person is for peace and wants peace. That is why He reprimands Peter when Peter cuts off the ear of the high priest servant and tells him to shield his sword because He came for peace.

The main focus of triumph of Jesus is His triumph over evil, death, sin, and suffering. Jesus as God has foreseen all His suffering and death He was about to undergo and how He will be ill-treated by those He has cared for, by those He fed when they were hungry, and those He healed their sickness and cured their infirmities.

These are the same people who would insult Him and make all kinds of mockery of Him. One would have expected Him to withdraw back in the midst of all these evils but since He has come to defeat the power of evil over humanity He remained firm. He was obedient unto death that even when the passersby made a mockery of Him by telling Him if you are the son of God "save yourself by coming down from the cross." He remained on the cross, He chose to remain there because He knew, that is the only way to save the world. The devil does not like the cross and wants to take Him away from the cross. In our own lives too, we encounter situations whereby we wish to avoid the cross to choose the easy way out. Jesus' example on choosing to remain on the cross instead of coming down is a clear indication that we should not listen to voices that would want to distract us from carrying our own cross in life when the situation calls for it.

In the same way, anytime we are in the crisis of choosing between good and evil and we choose good then we have allowed God to triumph in that situation. When we are faced with the struggle between giving in to sin or not and we avoid the sin, then Jesus has triumphed in that very moment. Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem should also be an opportunity to reflect on how often we triumph over sin, negative forces and evil that come our way in our daily lives. It would be good if we use the Palm Sunday of this particular year to put things straight in our lives.

My prayer is that our participation in the paschal mystery leads us to ever stronger faith in Jesus, the Blessed Son of God.

Wishing you all a Blessed Holy Week Celebration.
Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Tenebrae
Wednesday, March 27, 2024
at 7:00 pm

The service of Tenebrae, or “shadows” grew out of a combination of night prayers and early morning prayers, with an additional focus on the commemoration of the Passion of our Lord. This service is tradition, used in the last days of Holy Week, to impress upon the hearts of believers the awful consequences of sin and the magnitude of the Savior’s sacrifice.

Please join us immediately after the Tenebrae for prayer service as we burn last year’s Holy Oils, palms, and other religious articles in preparation for the parish’s reception of this year’s Holy Oils.

Mass of the Lord’s Supper
March 28, 2024 - 7:00 pm

During the Last Supper, Christ performs an act of love and service in the washing of the feet of His disciples. This humble act was Jesus’ way of teaching His disciples and us to give respect and serve. One way that we do this, as a parish, is that we remember those who go hungry by bringing a non-perishable food item to be placed around the altar during Offertory on Holy Thursday. The food donations and any monetary donations will be given to the Soup Kitchen.

Disposal of Palms and Blessed Religious Articles

If you have any old blessed palms, other religious articles or prayer books that have lost their usefulness, you may have them disposed of at the Burning of Holy Oils after Tenebrae on Holy Wednesday, March 27, 2024.

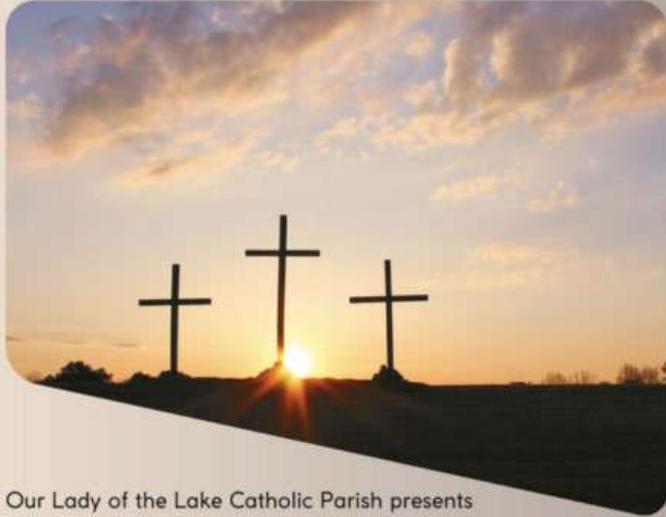

Please place your old, broken or unwanted religious articles in the basket in the Narthex by 12:00 noon on Wednesday, March 27, 2024.

Christ in the Neighborhood You're invited!

Join us for round 2!
April-June 2024

Third Saturday of the month
4:30-6:30 pm

(Once placed in a small group, the day may change if necessary to accommodate the personal group's schedules)

"The small group setting allows for people to share their life stories... stories which we would never hear just meeting them at the Church or at a meeting. We heard an incredible story. We now feel a connection with that fellow parishioner, a bond that wasn't there before. Our relationship is forever changed."

- Sherry Ketner

"I love going to the homes, getting to know people better, and hearing their stories. This is great! I love it." - Fr. Tony Okolo
"I got to meet some friends, and even got to know some people I have seen many times at Church but never spend time with.

Good company, good food, good stories-and best of all was sharing stories of faith. We build each other up."

- Melanie Sarino

CRS Rice Bowl For Lent, For Life

What you give up for Lent changes lives. Please pick up a Rice Bowl box in the Narthex of the Church. Please return your offering to the Gift Shop or the Parish Office before Holy Thursday, March 28, 2024. For more information, please visit crsricebowl.org.

ENTRANCE SONG

The King of Glory

Willard F. Jabusch

Refrain: The King of glory comes, the nation rejoices. Open the gates before him, lift up your voices.

Who is the king of glory; how shall we call him?
He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages.

In all of Galilee, in city or village, he goes among his people curing their illness.

Sing then of David's son, our savior and brother; in all of Galilee was never another.

He gave his life for us, the pledge of salvation;
he took upon himself the sins of the nation.

Psalm 22

My God, my God,
why have you abandoned me?

OFFERTORY SONG

Were You There

Robert J. Batastini

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Refrain: Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble, were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?

Refrain: Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble, were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?

Were you there when they pierced Him in the side?
Were you there when they pierced Him in the side?

Refrain: Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble, were you there when they pierced Him in the side?

Were you there when the sun refused to shine?
Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

Refrain: Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble, were you there when the sun refused to shine?

COMMUNION SONGS

Make Me A Servant

Anoceto Nazareth

Refrain: Make me a servant humble and meek. Lord, let me lift up those who are weak. And may the prayer of my heart always be: make me a servant, make me a servant, make me a servant today.

Even though you were in the form of God, you took the form of a slave. You accepted death, even on a cross, so God exalted your name.

Ere you formed me in my mother's womb, you called me by my name. And you touched my mouth and appointed me a prophet to the world.

May I heal the sick and the crippled bind, bring back the sheep that stray. May I seek the lost and the weak make strong, with justice feed the poor.

Stand By Me

Tom Kendzia

Refrain: Stand by me, stand by me. Lift me up from the restless sea. When I am lost, when love can't be found, when no one cares, Lord, stand by me.

When the storms of life are raging, Lord stand by me. When the current pulls me under, Lord, stand by me. When the rising waters toss me like a ship upon the sea, You who rule the wind and water, Lord, stand by me.

In the midst of persecution, Lord, stand by me. When my enemies surround me, Lord, stand by me. When the tyrant wields his terror and the armies wage their might, when the darkness overwhelms me, Lord, stand by me.

CLOSING SONG

We Remember

Marty Haugen

Refrain: We remember how you loved us to your death, and still we celebrate, for you are with us here; And we believe that we will see you when you come, in your glory, Lord, we remember, we celebrate, we believe.

Here, a million wounded souls are yearning just to touch you and be healed; Gather all your people, and hold them to your heart;

Now we recreate your love, we bring the bread and wine to share a meal; Sign of grace and mercy, the Presence of the Lord.

CANTO DE ENTRADA

Hosanna al Hijo de David

Lourdes Montgomery

Estríbillo: ¡Hosanna! ¡Hosanna al Hijo de David!

Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor, bendito el Rey de Israel!

Con ramos de olivo lo hijos de Israel clamaban: ¡Hosanna al Señor!

Con mantos vestían el paso del Señor, gritando: ¡Hosanna al Señor!

Tu eres el Rey, el Rey de Israel; honor y gloria a ti.

Salmo 22

Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿por qué me has abandonado?

CANTO DE OFERTORIO

Nombre Sobre Todo Nombre

Iván Díaz

Cristo, por nosotros se sometió hasta la muerte, y muerte en una cruz; por eso el Padre lo engrandeció por encima de todo y le concedió:

El Nombre, Nombre, Nombre sobretodo, sobretodo Nombre. El Nombre, Nombre, Nombre sobretodo, sobretodo Nombre.

Ante el Nombre de Jesús, toda rodilla se doble sin cesar y toda lengua proclamará que Jesucristo es el Señor; y debemos confesar:

The Unity Prayer

MY ADORABLE JESUS,

MAY OUR FEET JOURNEY TOGETHER.

MAY OUR HANDS GATHER IN UNITY.

MAY OUR HEARTS BEAT IN UNISON.

MAY OUR SOULS BE IN HARMONY.

MAY OUR THOUGHTS BE AS ONE.

MAY OUR EARS LISTEN TO

THE SILENCE TOGETHER.

MAY OUR GLANCES

PROFOUNDLY

PENETRATE EACH OTHER.

MAY OUR LIPS PRAY TOGETHER TO

GAIN MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL FATHER.

AMEN

CANTO DE COMUNIÓN

Cristo y Su Cruz

Joaquín Madurga

Estríbillo: Cristo y su cruz, la salvación, triunfaremos.

Nuestra gloria es la cruz del Señor de quien viene nuestra salvación. El es vida y es Resurrección.

El que quiera venir tras de mí que se niegue y renuncie a su 'yo' y me siga abrazando a su cruz.

Como el grano en el surco murió y la espiga es el fruto al segar, fructifica tu muerte en la cruz.

CANTO DE SALIDA

Perdon, Señor

Juan A. Espinosa

Perdón, Señor, perdón. Perdón, Señor, perdón.

Misericordia, mi Dios, por tu bondad. Por tu inmensa compasión borra mi culpa.

Lava del todo mi delito y limpia todo mi pecado.

Reconozco mi culpa, Señor, tengo siempre presente mi pecado.

Contra Ti, contra Ti solo peque, cometí la maldad que aborreces.

Hazme oír el gozo y la alegría, que se alegren los huesos quebrantados.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio. Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
