Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 23, 2023

In his patience, the Lord allows both weeds and wheat to grow together, both saints and sinners to respond to salvation in the Kingdom. The Lord is good and forgiving, lenient to all, desiring repentance for our sins. May the Spirit assist us in our weakness.

Pastor's Corner

Journey of Faith Demands a Movement

Beloved Parishioners,

In today's Pastor's Corner, I share with you some of the personal reflections taken from the weekday readings of the past weeks. For the past three weeks, the first reading of the Mass came from the book of Genesis. We also saw notable people and pillars of our faith whose testimony of faith was characterized by some form of movement to an unknown destination. The readiness to move into an unknown destination trusting only in God's providence forms the core of my reflection.

The first person in this movement to an unknown destination was Abraham. He was called by God, to leave his kinsman, his familiar environment and go to an unknown place that will be shown to him. Abraham did not know anything about the place he was to go or the people or the climate. The only thing he knows is that God is a faithful God who does not disappoint His own people. The movement was tough and challenging at the early stages but, at the end, God demonstrated to Abraham that He is a faithful God.

Isaac was another man of faith who left his place to go to another country. The author of Genesis says that as Abraham gets old and was about to die he made his senior servant swear an oath he will not take a wife for his son Isaac from the Canaanites women, among whom he lived, but he should go to his kindred to take a wife for Isaac. Providentially, Isaac himself went to live in Negeb and it was there that he took a wife for himself, Rebekah. There was a movement in Isaac's life leaving behind his childhood environment to a different location. The movement was also blessed by God as Isaac found favor with God in many fronts.

Jacob made a long journey departing from Beer-sheba towards Haran and along the way he fell asleep and found that God was there and that he must build a shrine for the Lord. He even said, "If God remains with me, to protect me on this journey I am making and gives me enough bread to eat and clothing to wear, I will set up a memorial stone to be God's abode." In his old age, he has to make the greatest movement of his life with his family down to Egypt to be with Joseph, his son, and he remained there till he passed away. There is something common to all these men; there was a movement from one point to another in their search to carry out the will of God in their lives. None knew exactly what awaits them but only trusted God's faithfulness.

Beloved people of God, for us to fulfill or reach that point God has destined for us in our relationship with Him, sometimes we need to make some movement that requires only faith not counting the cost or knowing what awaits us on the other side. Just like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob who all left their secure comfort environment to an unknown destination leaving behind their familiar terrain, we must equally be ready to do that in our spiritual journey. This movement may take different forms. It may involve moving away from some attachment to a relationship that would be hard to part with but blocks the grace of God flowing into your lives. It may be a moving in a positive direction to reconcile with your family members as Jacob did. It may be moving away from a hostile environment that distracts your peace of mind. It may be in the form of moving deeper into a spiritual relationship with God where God becomes the highest priority in your life. It may be a movement to leave behind a habitual habit that destroys one's peace of mind or health. Whatever form it may take, there is need for movement towards God in our journey of faith. God bless you all.

Theme: God is the Final Answer

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year A, July 23, 2023

First Reading Wisdom 12:13, 16-19, Second Reading Rom 8:26-27, Gospel Matthew 13:24-43

We are presented with the Book of Wisdom in the first reading of today. It is one of the last Old Testament books to be written and it gives a good reflection on final judgment, resurrection, and eternal life. The Book of Wisdom covers topics like immortality, righteousness and encourages us that God's wisdom can be gained through a life of humility. God grants wisdom to His children who are humble and obedient. The part of the book we read today reflects on God's mercy and how God judges with clemency and gentleness.

The nature of our God is mercy, and He does not condemn anybody but wants us to approach Him with an open and repentant heart. The Wisdom Book dwells on this mercy of God because He wants everyone to experience the salvation that God offers. The message of hope we would take home is that God's mercy is unlimited and He wants us to be kind, gentle and hopeful. The second reading continues from where the first reading stopped; that the spirit of God comes to our aid in weakness. There may be that desire to pray but often the body is weak and then the spirit intercedes for us in our weakness. The spirit of God is always around to encourage us in our life's daily struggle and challenges.

The gospel message tells the story of a farmer who sowed good seed in his vineyard and at night an enemy came and sowed weed. The servant wanted to go and pull out the weed, but the master told them to allow both the weed and wheat to grow together until harvest time when it will be visible to separate the weed from the wheat. A very important point too is that whereas weeds can never become wheat, bad people can become good and in the history of the world, many a great sinner has become a great saint because of the grace of almighty God. Jesus wants to teach us that God permits both the sinners and saints to grow together to offer the sinner the opportunity to repent. It is not our business to conclude that certain people are weed in the sight of God. A sinner today may turn around to be a saint tomorrow while a good person today may fall away when confronted with challenges and vicissitude of life. The central message of the gospel is that time is the only thing that can determine how steadfast we are in our faith. Let us not be quick to judge and condemn other people but give them opportunity for change. The church of God is made up of saints and sinners and it is only with patience and time that the identity of each is revealed.

Good to be Catholic

Resumes Monday, August 7, 2023 in the Church at 6:00 pm. Please join Fr. Michael for our next session. The theme for the evening is “Do you have a personal relationship with the Lord?” Encountering Christ and learning how and why a personal relationship with Jesus is key to the faithful life. We will be unpacking the call to a personal relationship with Jesus and as Catholics learn about what’s at our fingertips in becoming the best version of ourselves through our encounter with Jesus.

Catholics are called into a personal relationship with Jesus too! That’s not just an Evangelical thing. In June of 2022, we began a new and innovative ministry at the parish called Good to Be Catholic. This is not your ordinary catechism class, because the goal is to bring our Catholic Faith front and center with practical knowledge, equipping us to understand and live boldly the Catholic Faith. We covered many topics over the past year, including Vatican II, Saints and Angels, Marian Feast Days, Holy Days, and Sacraments. Our Monthly sessions inside the Church will continue the first Monday of the month resuming August 7, 2023 at 6:00 pm.

Part of the goal of this ministry is to excite people about how it’s Good to Be Catholic. Bishop Dolan, during his last visit to the parish, was quite impressed that such an innovative way to teach the faith was happening right here at Our Lady of the Lake. My hope is that we spread the word, and invite our family and friends to come out and support this ministry, by fostering a zeal and passion towards all things Catholic.

It really is Good to be Catholic.

Why does the priest break the Host on the altar after the Lamb of God Prayer?

Jesus celebrated the Last Supper with four great Eucharistic actions: He took, blessed, broke, and distributed the Bread (Matthew 27:45). The breaking of the Bread signifies that in communion we who are many are made one body in "the Bread of Life," Who is Christ (see John 6:48, 1 Corinthians 10:17). The Mass is the Sacred Meal where we share table fellowship with Christ in His Family of love and unity. After the breaking of the Bread, the priest commingles a small part of the Host in the chalice to signify that Christ's Body and Blood are reunited in His glorious Resurrection, in Heaven, and in the Eucharist.

Share Our Blessings

Our Lady of the Lake has received many blessings over the years. Since the early 2000's, we have had several priests serving at Our Lady of the Lake. When Fr. Michael Deptula was pastor, we had Fr. Fidelis Igwenwanne, Fr. Michael Ashibuogwu and Fr. Sylvester Modebei assigned to Our Lady of the Lake at different times by the Diocese of Phoenix. Our parish supported the Diocese of Issele-Uku with monetary donations 2006 through April 2019. During this time we also hosted Most Reverend Dr. Michael Elue - Bishop of Issele-Uku and presented him with many liturgical gifts including monetary donations.

The loving support of our parishioners continued when the Diocese of Zaria graciously shared their priests, Fr. Thomas Kawai, Fr. Victor Yakubu, Fr. Lawrence Bakut, Fr. Barnabas Duniya and Bishop Julius Kundi.

An appeal is being made to have Our Lady of the Lake share their generosity and support with the Congregation of the Holy Spirit. This is the order that graciously gave permission to Fr. Anthony Okolo to come to the Diocese of Phoenix and then as the Parochial Administrator of Our Lady of the Lake.

Father Tony is a member of the Congregation of the Holy Spirit which typically works with the poor and marginalized and also works in those places where the church finds it difficult to find workers. The Province of Nigeria, South East has more than 450 members, half of which are scattered over 45 countries of the world working according to the spirit of their founders Father Claude Desplaces and Francis Libermann. The main charism of the Province is preaching the gospel message to difficult areas, working in schools, and working among young people. Facing the many challenges of taking care of the retired and elderly priests, who have come back from missions very sick and fragile and unable to care of themselves because of the lack of a proper health care system, has become a burden financially to the Province. There is also a serious need for the younger generation to have the opportunity to obtain scholarships to help access quality education.

In an effort to share our blessings with a special thank you to the Congregation of the Holy Spirit, Our Lady of the Lake will be holding an annual collection for them each year on Divine Mercy Sunday. In the meantime, should you wish to make a donation, envelopes have been placed in the pews and narthex. Donations may also be made using online giving.

ENTRANCE SONG

Come to the Feast

Bob Hurd

Refrain: Come, come to the banquet. Come, come to the feast. Here the hungry find plenty, here the thirsty shall drink, here at the supper of Jesus, come to the feast.

Like the child whose fishes and loaves fed the multitude, in the Lord the little we have, broken and shared, becomes abundant food.

'Til the seed is given to earth, it is just one grain; but once sown its death brings new birth, the harvest is rich; what's lost is raised again.

Glory to God

Tony Alonso

Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our Prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm 86

Lord, you are good and forgiving.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

(For those who are not able to receive Communion at this time)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separate from you. Amen

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO ADVERTISE IN OUR BULLETIN!

OFFERTORY SONG

You Are Near

Dan Schutte

Refrain: O Lord, I know you are near, standing always at my side. You guard me from the foe, and you lead me in ways everlasting.

Lord, you have searched my heart, and you know when I sit and when I stand. Your hand is upon me protecting me from death, keeping me from harm.

Where can I run from your love? If I climb to the heavens you are there; if I fly to the sunrise or sail beyond the sea, still I'd find you there.

COMMUNION SONGS

Bread for the World

Bernadette Farell

Refrain: Bread for the World: a world of hunger. Wine for all peoples; people who thirst. May we who eat be bread for others. May we who drink pour out our love, pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain. Where we divide you people you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured in to hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps. Where we are tired and weary you are waiting there to be the way which beckon us beyond despair.

Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow'ful have become the least. Where we survive on others in our human greed you walk among us begging for your ev 'ry need

CLOSING SONG

We Are the Light of the World

Jean A. Greif

Blessed are they who are poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God. Bless us, O Lord, make us poor in spirit, bless us, O Lord, our God.

Refrain: We are the light of the world, may our light shine before all, that they may see the good that we do, and give glory to God.

Blessed are they who are meek and humble, they will inherit the earth. Bless us, O Lord, make us meek and humble; bless us, O Lord, our God.

Es mi anhelo, mi anhelo creciente, en el surco, contigo morir; y fecunda será la simiente, Señor, revestida de eterno vivir.

Racimo y trigal hoy hemos presentado maná celestial hoy el Señor nos da como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la eternidad como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de fraternidad.

Aleluya, aleluya, aleluya.

En torno al altar somos sus invitados, en torno al altar El esperando está como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la eternidad, como manjar; El pone en nuestras manos el pan de fraternidad.

Tristeza y dolor corren por nuestros labios, pureza y amor trae nuestro Señor; viene mi amor y El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la comunión. Viene mi amor y El pone en nuestras manos el pan de la comunión.

CANTO DE SALIDA

Te Den Gracias

Tradicional

Te den gracias todos los pueblos, que todos los pueblos te den gracias. Te den gracias todos los pueblos, que todos los pueblos te den gracias.

Señor, Señor, Señor, gracias te damos por esta misa que hemos celebrado. Tu Cuerpo y Sangre ya hemos recibido, volvemos a la vida entusiasmados.

Señor, qué bien se vive en tu casa, en Cristo siempre unidos como hermanos. Señor que sea este un anticipo del cielo que ya hemos comenzado.

ORACIÓN PARA HACER UNA COMUNIÓN ESPIRITUAL

(Para aquellos que no pueden recibir la comunión en este momento)

Creo Señor mío que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo ardientemente recibirte dentro de mi alma; pero, no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Y como si te hubiese recibido, te abrazo y me uno todo a Ti Oh Señor, no permitas que me separe de Ti. Amen.
