KNIGHTS IN REGALIA

Happy New Year to All!

2018

My Brother Knights,

How blessed we are to see another year.
The love of our Lord, Jesus Christ, our Father through the Holy Spirit has given us time to reflect on our past. To prepare for the future and to accept the gifts of today. Happy New Years to each of you, your families and all whom you love.

I am please to see this year as a gift from God. I will not dwell on what it may bring but accept all that is given to me.

May they be good tidings or trials of life, I will give Christ thanks for giving me each. I know I will have trials of falling in sin in pains of illness, yet I know that God, through our Lord, Jesus Christ, I am loved, am forgiven and I am saved through Him. I offer my pains to Him who suffered for me. My good tidings are gifts to be shared with those less fortunate.

I

Look not with the eyes of the body, but with the eyes of the soul. See the perfection of all God's children. We have a new start in life, a friend with Christ who walks with us. He hears our pleas, He feels our pains, He gives us His love. All we need to do is accept Him in all His glory.

As you wake up each morning, give yourself to God. With prayers on our lips as we meet the dawn be truly grateful for the gift of life. I see the past to give me strength to be with Christ. Yes, I will fail but I know I will stand up and pray for greater strength. I will sin but I will reconcile not to sin again. I am a man but I have God by my side. We all do. He is the perfect Father.

May this year bring each of you Jesus Christ's love, compassion, healing and above all understanding that He is our Father. As our Father, He loves His Children.

Live each day with the gift of love, share all with those around you. Today is yours because God loves you. Yet we must make preparation of our souls. Keep prayers on your lips as we enter the New Year, give praise to God for His gift of life.
